Volunteer helps SK CARES continue to support students

By Carla Aveledo
Staff Writer

"Some people wonder, 'What do I have to offer as a volunteer?' You have yourself. That's all you need to help support a child - be their friend, listen to them."

HELEN PERNICONE
President, SK CARES Board of Directors

SK CARES volunteer Kerry O'Rourke is pictured with the "science sacks" she helped organize for first-graders at Wakefield Elementary School.

"Some people wonder, 'What do I have to offer as a volunteer?' You have yourself. That's all you need to help support a child - be their friend, listen to them."

HELEN PERNICONE
President, SK CARES Board of Directors

"Some people wonder, 'What do I have to offer as a volunteer?' You have yourself. That's all you need to help support a child - be their friend, listen to them."

HELEN PERNICONE
President, SK CARES Board of Directors